PUBLIC SAFETY IN ATHENS-CLARKE

“Law Enforcement in the Spotlight”

Clarke County Police Chief JERRY SAULTERS

POLICE CHIEF, JERRY SAULTERS

Jerry Saulters started his law enforcement career with the Athens-Clarke County Police Department in 1998. Prior to joining law enforcement, he served in the United States Army. Saulters was named the Sherm Applebaum Officer of the Year in 2012 for outstanding professional and community service by the Athens Rotary Club. On October 7, 2022, after serving as interim chief, Saulters was appointed to serve as Clarke County Chief of Police.

“We place the highest value on the relationships our officers have built in the communities they serve. It is our belief that while the mission of the Athens-Clarke County Police Department is to protect and serve the community, we must also remain committed to keeping the community informed of the various actions, efforts, and achievements of the department.”

Lieutenant Special Services Division JOE GEIGER

LIEUTENANT JOE GEIGER, SPECIAL SERVICES DIVISION

“Building Bridges, Creating Futures”

The Community Outreach Division of the Athens-Clarke County Police Department is a diverse group of men and women striving to connect our department to the community that we serve. The Special Services Division proactively plans and hosts events and participates with other community groups to encourage positive interactions between the police and our citizens and visitors. Some examples of the activities and initiatives we participate in can be found HERE.

COMMUNITY ORIENTED POLICING

“To work in collaboration with the Citizens of Athens-Clarke County to create a secure and safe community, while enhancing the relationship between the community and law enforcement.”
