GREG DOLEZAL

CANDIDATE FOR LT. GOVERNOR

gregdolezal.com

Dolezal is running for Lt. Governor “because we are at a turning point as the radical left continues to threaten public safety, our livelihoods, our families, and our childrens' future.” When property taxes and traffic gridlock got out of control at home, Greg got involved locally. In 2018, the people of Forsyth County overwhelmingly elected him to the State Senate. He now serves as Chairman of the Senate Transportation Committee and, at the request of Lt. Governor Burt Jones, sits on the powerful Committee on Assignments. Greg built software now used by everyone from The White House to the NFL, from Gulfstream Jets to Chick-fil-A.

DOUG MCKILLIP

dougckillip.com

McKillip was a member of the Georgia House of Representatives, representing District 115. He assumed office in 2007. He left office in 2013. Former Democrat, McKillip switched to the Republican Party. He explained, "As an independent-minded Republican, I can accomplish a great deal for my constituents and my city." Before the switch, McKillip had been elected to serve as minority caucus leader, one of the top three leadership positions. During his previous service in the Georgia State House, Doug authored and passed the law that ended late-term abortions in Georgia. It made him the #1 target of the radical left — and it ultimately cost him his seat. Doug McKillip is an unashamed Christian and conservative who has already shown us he will risk everything to protect our values.
